

WolfTrack 6.0

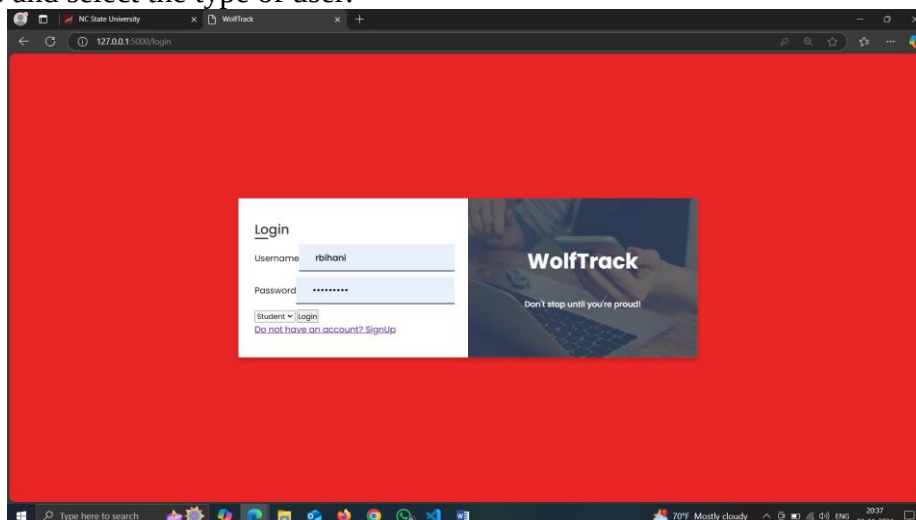

- Your one-stop shop for smooth coordination and effectiveness when looking for internships and full-time employment is WolfTrack6.0.
- With the help of this advanced online platform, you may expedite the application process and monitor each stage of your career path. With WolfTrack6.0, you can easily manage applications, deadlines, and important papers, so you never miss a beat in your career hunt.
- Bid farewell to disorganized notes and long email threads. It serves as your compass in the cutthroat job market, providing accuracy and structure without compromising use or flair.
- Your key to success is WolfTrack6.0, which effortlessly and elegantly leads you through the several professional routes.
- We include tools like tracking your application, suggesting changes for your resume, searching for jobs, and much more.

The landing page looks like the following:

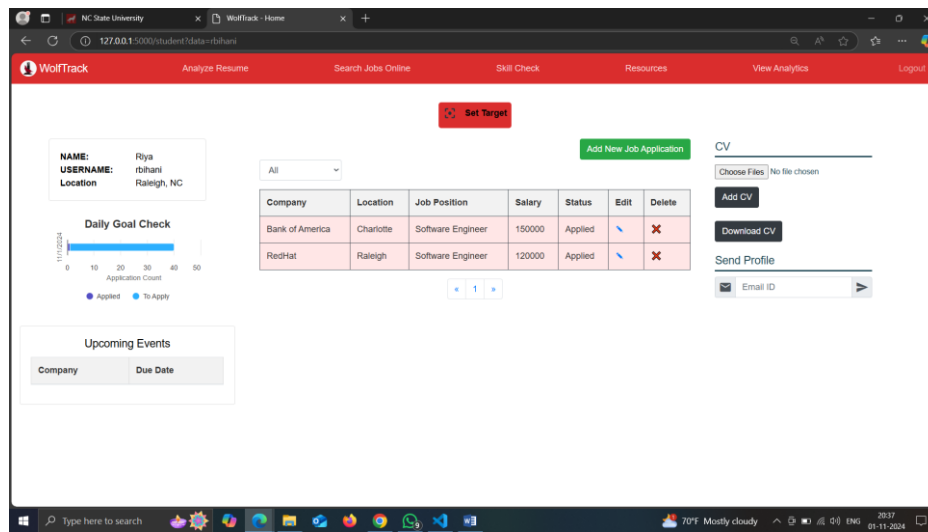

This contains 2 options for new users as well as existing users.

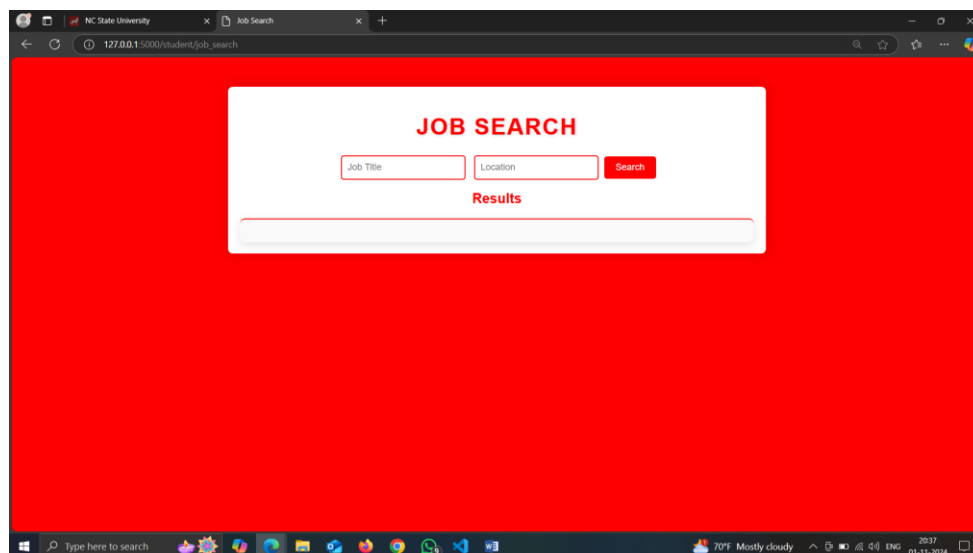

When an existing user is present is them directed to login page where the user will enter the credentials and select the type of user.

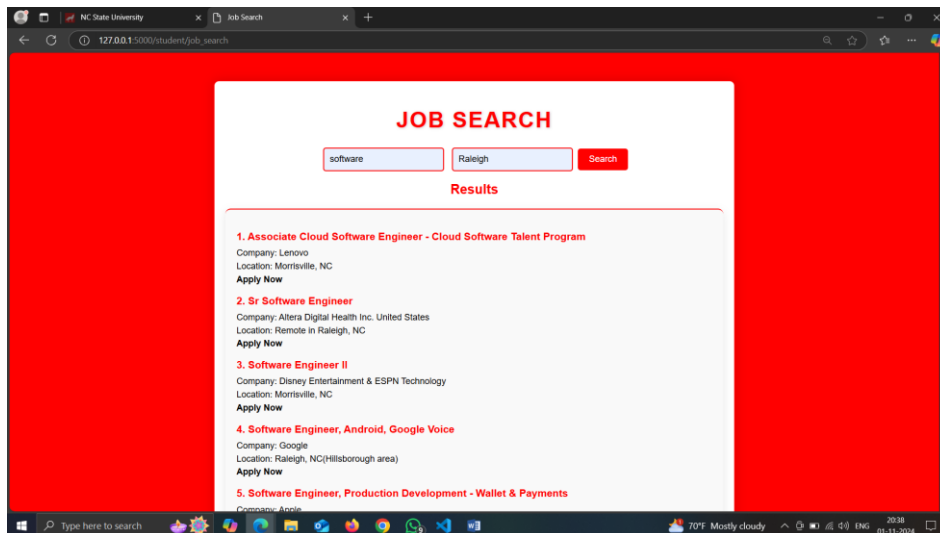

The home page of the Wolfrack6.0 looks like the following with varied type of features.

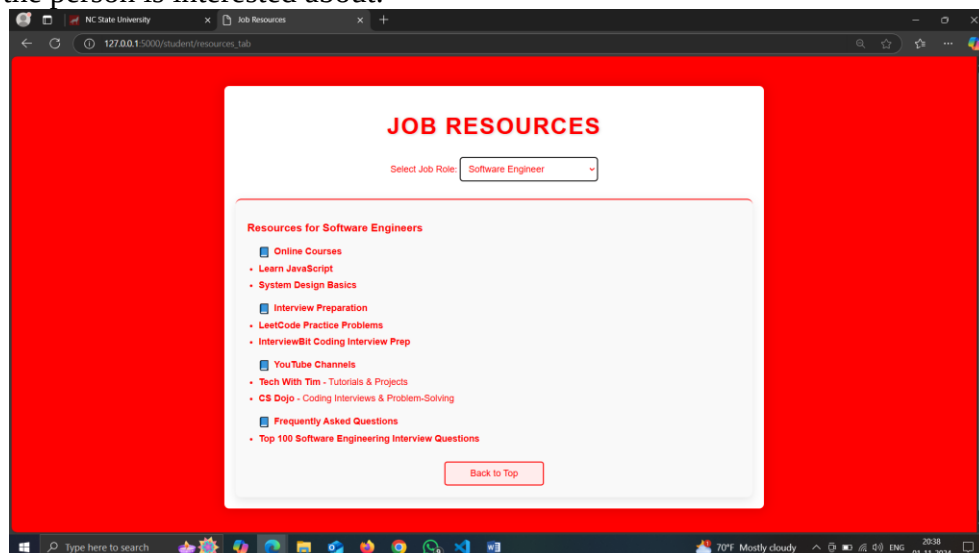

The new feature added in Wolfrack6.0 contains intensive web search for jobs as it uses Web Scrapping from various resources to provide the available jobs for the specified location.

The new Job Resources tab provides different types of resources to the user for preparation of the role the person is interested about.

The analytics page shows the current salaries provided by the company for the specific roles.

